1. Association of Alumni Meeting and D-GALA Breakfast
Hanover, NH

WHEN: Sunday, October 23, 2005

- Breakfast at 9:30 a.m. at EBA's

- Meeting at 11:00 a.m. in Alumni Hall

Come to the annual meeting of the Association of Alumni on the Sunday of Homecoming weekend. This meeting is a chance to learn more about the new constitution, as well as vote for new officers for the Association of Alumni. These officers set the agenda for the annual meetings (and any special meetings) and oversee the balloting process/rules for the Trustee elections.

Under the current constitution, alums must be present at the meeting to vote, so it's important for all alums who are in the area to attend and participate. Meet the new vice president for Alumni Relations, help elect new officers, deliberate on a proposed new constitution, and receive a special commemorative Dartmouth photo by college photographer Joseph Mehling '69!

http://alumni.dartmouth.edu/leadership/association/assoc\_amtg.html

Prior to the meeting, join D-GALA for a buffet breakfast with students and alumni at EBA's.

RSVP to Susi Kandel '00 at susi@alum.dartmouth.org.

Have questions about the meeting? Contact Trevor Burgess '94 attrb72@aol.com for more information.

The Asia Society presents extraordinary exhibitions of traditional and contemporary Asian art, commissions original performances, and hosts tours by Asia's most renowned dancers, musicians, artists, actors, authors, and poets. The Society is also a premiere showcase for works by the growing number of Asian-American visual and performing artists. These cultural programs serve as one of the Society's more powerful tools for fostering cross-cultural understanding. The galleries will be open during our event and the museum will present two guided tours of the galleries, the first one beginning at 6:30pm.

For this event, we welcome all LGBT alumni and students from the Ivy League and Seven Sisters Schools, as well as our friends from NYU, UVA, Duke, Georgetown, Williams, and Stanford.... In particular we invite our asian LGBT alumni, as well as their friends and partners, but all are welcome. Our last event at the Asia Society was a tremendous success with over 100 alumni - come see what the buzz is about!

Lambda Families of New Jersey (LFNJ), a not-for-profit gay & lesbian parenting group in NJ, will hold its 5th Biennial Family Conference on Saturday, October

22. This full-day event offers workshops for gay and lesbian parents and those thinking about becoming parents. Workshops cover a variety of subjects including legal and financial planning, strategies for working with schools, thinking about having kids, parenting skills, adoption and assisted reproduction, and many other topics.

The Conference also offers workshops and programming for the children of gay and lesbian parents, led by the national non-profit group COLAGE (Children of Gays & Lesbians Everywhere). Children 8 years and older will be able to attend workshops and events with other kids in their peer group (8-11 years old, and 12 years old & up). Full-day on-site childcare is also available for those who pre-register.

In addition to over 25 workshops, highlights of the Conference include a keynote address by dynamic activist and NJ lesbian mom Joan Garry (former Executive Director of GLAAD) and a teen panel discussion of kids from lesbian and gay parented families. Anyone who is an LGBT parent, or planning on becoming one, is invited to register. Kids over 8 with at least one LGBT parent are also invited.

For further details, and for a brochure and registration form, go to <http://www.rainbowfamiliesnj.org/pages/3/index.htm>

17. The Rainbow Fund Volunteer Opportunities

The Rainbow Fund is a gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and supportive heterosexual humanitarian service agency. Rainbow World Fund's mission is to promote LGBT philanthropy in the area of world humanitarian relief. RWF provides a united voice, a large visible presence, and a structure to deliver LGBT charitable assistance to the larger world community.

Founded in 2000, the Rainbow World Fund works to help people who suffer from hunger, poverty, disease, oppression and war by raising awareness and funds to support existing relief efforts around the world. RWF accomplishes this by working in the LGBT community educating people about world need. Along with raising our community's consciousness, RWF raises funds to support humanitarian relief projects. We partner with international relief agencies to support successful existing projects. By doing extensive research, RWF develops partnerships with the most effective organizations that best reflect our guiding principles: Empowerment, Sustainability, Peacemaking, Measurable Impact and Ecological Awareness.

Currently our work focuses on global HIV/AIDS, water development, landmine eradication, and hunger. RWF currently supports projects in Africa, Asia, Central America and the Caribbean. The Rainbow Fund is also working to provide food, drinking water, and medical care to the victims of Hurricane Katrina.

To find out how to volunteer to help the Rainbow Fund, visit their volunteer page at <http://www.rainbowfund.org/getinvolved/> The Rainbow World Fund is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and is headquartered in San Francisco, California.
